

Vancouver Internships for Canadian Students

WINTER 2015 INTERNSHIP DATES

Monday, January 4, 2016 – Friday, April 29, 2016

Deadline for Applications: Friday, November 13, 2016

Interview Dates: Open

The U.S. Commercial Service in Vancouver offers internships to Canadian students (preferably in business or international affairs) that are interested in working in trade promotion.

BENEFITS OF INTERNSHIP

- Experience professional development
- Enhance business communication skills (verbal and written)
- Develop confidence and progress in a dynamic environment
- Utilize market research skills
- Increase professional contacts through regular networking with Canadian and U.S. business representatives
- Enhance resume and open doors to future careers positions (Passport Canada, PWGSC, Statistics Canada, etc.)
- Gain valuable 'on-the-job' experience

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

After a brief orientation period, the intern will be involved in 'on-the-job' training by working on a pre-defined project or projects relating to U.S./Canada trade development. Intern responsibilities could include: conducting market research, preparing reports, drafting replies to trade inquiries, promoting and recruiting exhibitors for trade events and making business appointments for U.S. companies seeking strategic alliances in Canada. The intern's work assignments shall be in the public interest, and to the maximum extent possible, shall provide an appropriate educational experience for the intern.

Interns work in a progressive environment and quickly become familiar with the dynamic field of international trade. Upon completion of the internship, each intern will receive a letter of referral based upon performance.

APPLICATION PACKAGE:

Please email, mail, or fax your cover letter, resume and writing sample, prior to the application deadline, to:
